

We the church of Eternal Self Ministries don't just BELIEVE we either KNOW or we don't know.

No man or woman requires a 3rd party to reach God.

The closer man gets to "self" the closer man gets with God.

At some point man must kill particular parts of "self" in order for greater parts to be born.

The Malachian Concepts of principle and power

Thou shall not destroy or take life of any man, child or woman UNLESS it is ABSOLUTELY necessary in order to protect the life of "self" or the lives of others.

If all intentions are evil then evil shall return but if all intentions are good man shall meet the sweet taste of glory.

No such thing of a problem exists here in the 3rd dimensional plane unless there lies no solution.

Judge thy "self" as equally as thy has judged other.

Express the same intent & energy with others as you wish to receive in return.

Never lie to self always seek the truth that lies within self.

The more you become aware of “self” the more you will become conscious of “self” and conscious of the people and things around you.

Give more than you receive (within reason) and you will always stay with abundance.

Limit expectations of others. Allow the appropriate time and space for an individual to reveal his or her true nature and true “self”.

In Eternal Self Ministries we believe that we all are made within the image of God and thy Creator which means that we too are Gods & Goddess who are fallen or transcended to human form.

We have been given this human experience as an opportunity to learn and relearn “self”.

Those that complete and accomplish this mission will gain spiritual benefits and rewards of true power and wisdom.

Every man & woman should live his or her life as they desire as long as it doesn't conflict, pain or limit the lives of others.

Fire within itself has many elements and many characteristics.

The blue flame represents the spirit inside of body. The spirit should always flow evenly through the body, evenly through the mind and be in sync with EVERY action.

You must balance a negative with the exact charge opposite equivalent to its power.

You cannot assist ANYONE in a battle between them and the demons that surround them UNLESS you have successfully defeated the demons that surround you.

Every problem should be addressed HEAD ON You and eliminated immediately to avoid cancerous effects.

You must fight to control your mind to go only in the direction of EVOLUTION!

The role of a master is to bring the opponent into harmony with the world by offering him an opportunity of wisdom and enlightenment.

If a warrior decides only to train his body then he will lose.

If he trains his spirit to work with and throughout the body then HE WILL WIN.

Pay no mind to see without thought and you will see wisdom though the clarity of silence.

1st Destroy fear then kill all concepts of limitation.

Used your mind to visualize the spirit channeling life force energy from the elements that surround you.

Consciously collect the chi, harness the chi, own and focus the chi to deliver it in the direction in which you desire.

All mentally, spiritually and metaphysically one must remain in the preparation of death to evolve himself instantaneously at any moment through the rebirth of self.

In shadow boxing one has two choices:

1. You can swing at the wind
2. You can become the wind

Which do you choose?

In a battle your offense is your greatest defense.

The moment we separate the 2 is the moment we will become imbalanced with self.

Every moment of contact is a opportunity to strike!

You are connected with all the powers of the universe until the day you decide not to be.

The levels to reach higher self go beyond the limits most can imagine, Once one becomes one with self he will then realize there are no limits.

There is NO limit to self as long as self is expressing self honestly.

We have to connect with all channels, all chambers and release all attachments in order to receive the cosmic energies of the universe.

The power of light only reveals itself inside the darkness.

Be very careful..

The bridge you burn today could be the same bridge you need to cross tomorrow.

Control all emotion and action..

It could feel good to burn the house down until you realize everything you knew was in the house while it was burning.

Every yard with grass can attract some snakes.

To avoid the bites do whatever it takes. Don't hesitate to walk away if lawnmower break!

You must make peace with "self" before you can bring peace to others.

Once you become one with "self" and the universe within "self" you will realize that you will no longer have to find information because the information will find you.

We are not limited from what we don't know we are limited to what we don't allow ourselves to overstand.

Success is not what matters,

What matter is what you do with success once we get it.

Interest is the penalty you paid for the right to own something in advance you can not afford!

“Override negative thoughts with positive actions”

“In order to control time you must dismiss the illusion of time”

The art of learning technique can provoke discipline when practicing the technique without limits man will see God!

Replication of “self” at a premature stage could cause the risk of losing the capability of identifying TRUE “self” from the replicated image of “self”

“If you shoot for the stars you may land on the moon but if you shoot for the roof you may land on the ground you started from”

The Ability to uplift self is great but the ability to elevate the people around you is the power that can never be lost.

“The power is beyond you but at the same time within you”

Repeat after me

I believe in self I believe in me I believe in God inside me I believe in God around me

I believe in eternal self
I believe in eternal life

Don't dance with the devil unless you are ready to dance with death

Every experience is an opportunity to become closer to self

The power of creation is an act of God. Thou who creates can also destroy.

This power of creation & destruction is in all of us.

Learn to Master the separation of the emotion related to the facts

Anyone can appear positive within positive moments,
But Maintaining control and balance within chaos is a true showmanship of self mastery

You do not truly understand good until you have dealt with evil.

Manifestation is not a thought it's a combination of thought and applied action

You can read a million books a a hundred times it still doesn't equate to the wisdom that comes through experience.

Family is business and business is family.
Simple concept very few understand.
