

THE MALACHIAN DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE

A Proclamation of Autonomy, Self-Governance, and Sovereign Rights

Ratified on this day, [Insert Date], by the Tribal Council of the Malachian Empire

PREAMBLE

We, the people of the Malachian Empire, a faith-based, autonomous, and self-governing nation, do hereby declare and affirm our complete and absolute independence from all external governmental control, statutory legal systems, and foreign corporate entities.

We proclaim our inalienable right to govern ourselves according to our own laws, customs, and traditions, free from interference, coercion, or subjugation by any outside power. Rooted in divine law, natural law, and universal principles of justice, we stand as a self-determined nation, asserting our right to self-governance as protected under international law.

This declaration is made in pursuit of liberty, dignity, and justice for all members of the Malachian Empire, securing for present and future generations a nation built upon the principles of autonomy, honor, faith, and prosperity.

SECTION I: STATEMENT OF NATURAL RIGHTS

We affirm that:

- 1 All people are born free and possess inherent, God-given rights that no external government, corporation, or institution may lawfully deny.
- 2 The right to self-determination is fundamental, and every people, nation, and tribe has the right to govern itself according to its own customs, spiritual beliefs, and legal systems.
- 3 The right to travel, associate, and conduct commerce freely shall not be infringed upon by any foreign authority.
- 4 The right to privacy and protection from surveillance and coercion shall be upheld within all Malachian territories.
- 5 The right to bear arms, defend oneself, and maintain national security is an essential protection against tyranny.
- 6 The right to religious freedom and spiritual practice shall be safeguarded, including sacred ceremonies and the use of natural medicines such as Ayahuasca and DMT.
- 7 The right to economic and financial autonomy, including the creation of our own currency, banking system, and digital economy, shall be maintained without interference.

8 The right to establish and enforce our own laws shall not be subject to foreign legal systems, courts, or corporate statutes.

✂ These rights are inalienable and cannot be legislated away, restricted, or revoked by any external power.

SECTION II: GRIEVANCES AGAINST OPPRESSION

We, the Malachian people, declare our separation from oppressive systems due to the following injustices:

- 1 The unjust subjugation of Indigenous and autonomous peoples through fraudulent contracts, forced citizenship, and legal coercion.
- 2 The systemic economic exploitation and financial enslavement of the people through usurious banking practices, fiat currency manipulation, and unjust taxation.
- 3 The suppression of natural rights and freedoms through excessive government control, unlawful surveillance, and violations of personal liberty.
- 4 The corruption of spiritual institutions, the criminalization of sacred ceremonies, and the interference with indigenous religious practices.
- 5 The criminalization of self-sufficiency, restricting access to land, water, and natural resources essential for survival.
- 6 The oppression of private and tribal nations through coercive legal doctrines such as Admiralty Law, Maritime Law, and Corporate Jurisdiction.
- 7 The denial of the right to travel freely without state-issued identification or corporate-controlled documentation.
- 8 The failure of foreign governments to recognize and respect the inherent sovereignty of self-governing peoples.

✂ For these reasons, and many others, we hereby sever all political, legal, and financial ties to oppressive governments and corporations, asserting our natural right to exist as a free and self-determined nation.

SECTION III: DECLARATION OF AUTONOMY

We, the people of the Malachian Empire, therefore solemnly declare:

- ✓ That we are, and by right ought to be, a free and self-governing nation, bound by our own laws and customs, owing no allegiance to any foreign government or corporate entity.

✔ That we claim full and unrestricted authority over our territories, institutions, and national affairs, rejecting any external legal claims or imposed jurisdiction.

✔ That we establish diplomatic relations only on the basis of mutual respect, maintaining peaceful engagement with other nations while preserving our autonomy.

✔ That we control our own economy, including the issuance of Malachian currency, the establishment of autonomous banking systems, and the management of national wealth and resources.

✔ That we defend our nation by all necessary means, including the maintenance of a national defense force, the regulation of firearm ownership, and the strategic use of digital security.

✔ That we recognize the inherent rights of all people to seek freedom and self-governance, offering refuge and protection to those who align with our principles.

✦ With this declaration, we formally proclaim our autonomy and reject any and all claims of ownership, governance, or legal jurisdiction imposed upon us by foreign entities.
